

WILFRED KNOTT.

[To accompany bill H. R. No. 242.]

MARCH 5, 1840.

Mr. MORRIS, of Ohio, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, made the following

REPORT :

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Wilfred Knott, report :

The petitioner has satisfactorily proved by a number of witnesses, under oath, that he was a private in an artillery company, commanded by Captain Griffith, in the last war with Great Britain ; that, while in the line of his duty at the White House, on the west side of the Potomac, in an engagement with the British fleet, on the 6th September, 1814, in consequence of his gun rebounding, his wrist was dislocated, and an injury received that resulted in a hernia. Doctors James Brown and Thomas Miller state, on oath, the degree of disability is total ; and it is certified that the said physicians are reputable in their profession, and that their statements are entitled to full confidence.

Mr. Morris, of Ohio, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Wilfred Knott, report:

The petitioner has satisfactorily proved by a number of witnesses, under oath, that he was a private in an artillery company, commanded by Captain Gellish, in the last war with Great Britain; that, while in the line of his duty at the White House, on the west side of the Potomac, in an engagement with the British fleet on the 24th September, 1814, in consequence of his gun rebounding, his wrist was dislocated and an injury received that resulted in a hernia. Doctors James Brown and Thomas Miller state, on oath, the degree of disability is total; and it is certified that the said physicians are reputable in their profession, and that their statements are entitled to full confidence.
